UPDATED INFORMATION

Date: / / 1033 HRS _____ AGS/SHB

On July 23, 2010, at about 2:30 PM, an armed robbery of a jewelry store occurred, near Pioneer Boulevard and 187th Street, Artesia. Shortly thereafter, sheriff's deputies saw the suspect vehicle and went into pursuit. The pursuit terminated in a cul-da-sac in the 12000 block of Palm Street, Cerritos, when the suspects got out of their car and ran. One of the four suspects was soon detained by deputies, and a second suspect was apprehended hours later.

Because the suspects were believed to have run in the direction of the 91 freeway, to safeguard the public and possibly apprehend the suspects, deputies shut down eastbound 91 freeway traffic from about 2:45PM until 4:00PM, while they searched in the bushes for the suspects alongside the freeway. During a portion of that time, the westbound 91 freeway traffic was also briefly stopped.

Los Angeles County Sheriff's K-9's, helicopter, SWAT team, and deputies from six sheriff's stations actively searched for the suspects.

No deputies were injured.

As of 7:20PM, July 23, 2010, Los Angeles County sheriff's deputies located the last two suspects. Arrested were, Bobby White, MB/20, of Fresno, Corey Harper, MB/24, of Bellflower, Ronnell Kirks, MB/20, and Jabarri Pangelinan, MB/20, both of South Los Angeles. All four suspects were arrested for Kidnapping, Robbery, Evading arrest (in a vehicle) and Assault with a Deadly Weapon. Suspect White was also charged with Possession of a Concealed Firearm and suspect Kirks additionally charged with a Parole Hold.
